The Series begins with...

A Call to Heal: Releasing the Past

with Thomas Mock

Friday, June 9 – Sunday, June 11, 2017

1515 Kensington Avenue
Buffalo, New York 14215

You are invited on a journey to . . .

- Receive personal healing: Participants will be guided in the use of time-honored Peruvian shamanic rituals and ceremony to serve as a catalyst for this healing.

- Learn how to create your own Mesa, a sacred altar for self-exploration, empowerment and transformation.

- Cultivate a relationship with the unseen world and discover your personal guide(s) who will help you “remember” on your new path of expanding possibilities.

A 5-Weekend Apprenticeship Series:

1. A Call to Heal
   (Releasing the Past)

2. A Balance of Power
   (Transforming the Present)

3. The Condor’s Quest
   (Creating the Future)

4. The Hummingbird’s Ascent
   (Living the Mystery)

5. The Shamanic Self
   (Serving the Earth)

This five part initiation into the living heart and ancestral soul of the Pachakuti Mesa Tradition is intended to awaken in every participant who completes the program a remembrance of their incarnational purpose as luminous strands of the Great Web of Life in service to the Seven Generations.

Thomas Mock was initiated into Lakota healing practices in 1984 and in 1989 into West African Yoruba practices, completing several levels of apprenticeship towards priesthood. He began training with Oscar Miro-Quesada in 1999, completing his level four apprenticeship in 2007. Thomas was the first Executive Director employed by the Heart of the Healer Foundation where he helped guide THOTH towards its current vision of service work in the world. Thomas has worked as a psychotherapist (LCSW) for over 30 years. In 2005 he was honored with a National recognition award by the RWJF as one of the nation’s 10 top Community Health Leaders.

“Thomas creates and maintains a safe and sacred space to explore aspects of the self in relation to unseen forces with uncanny perception and sensitivity”
- Apprentice: Michael Gaylor, MD
